NATIONAL CAPITAL REGION

WORLD FUTURE SOCIETY

Edward Cornish

FUTURING: PREPARING FOR A CHANGING WORLD

April 22,2004, 6:00 PM

Embassy Suites Hotel,

Chevy Chase Pavilion, Friendship Heights, Washington, D.C.

Ed Cornish, Founder and President of the World Future Society, will talk informally about his new book, Futuring: The Exploration of the Future, and his current views of the future.

Futuring: The Exploration of the Future is an authoritative introduction to scientific thinking about the future. Written in a clear, readable style, it explains what we can know about the future and what we can't, some techniques futurists use, and the role that forward-looking people can play in creating a better tomorrow. The publication date is June 15, but members will have an opportunity to buy the book and have Ed sign it at the meeting.

6:00 p.m.	Cash bar reception	4300 Military Rd., Washington, DC
6:45	Buffet Dinner	Building above Friendship Heights
7:45	Program	Metro stop on the Red line
–9:00		Parking: Garage, limited street avail.

Reservations (cancelable before deadline without charge) by Tuesday, April 20, 2004, to:
WFS, c/o Ken Harris, 5416 Newington Road, Bethesda, Md., 20816, (301) 657-3731, by email at harriskw@erols.com, or fax credit card charged reservations to Ken at 301-657-3872

Check enclosed__, please reserve:___places ___$29 (Chapter member) ___places ___$32 (non-Chapter member)

Charge my ___Visa ____MasterCard ____American Express

Name_____

GuestName_____

Number_____Exp. Date_____

Signature_____

Phone (Work)_____(Home)_____